THE TORCH OF WAR

A Single Spark in Bulgaria May Set It Blazing.

GRAVITY OF A SIMPLE INCIDENT IN THE BALKANS.

Commercial Treaties Engage the Attention of European Legislative Bodies.—South American States Interested.—Canada Will Not Modify Canal Toll Regulations.—General Foreign.

PARIS, Dec. 16.—The refusal of the Bulgarian Government to grant France the satisfaction that the latter country demands for the expulsion of M. Choudouin, a French diplomatist, from Bulgaria, continues to be the most exciting topic of conversation in diplomatic circles. The gravity of the step taken by the Bulgarian Government is not only acknowledged by all intelligent persons and nobody versed in the delicate question involved in Balkan diplomacy denies that this incident forms a spark dangerous enough to set the torch of war in Europe. By this it is intended to intimate that it is likely that this rupture of the diplomatic relations between France and Bulgaria is leading up to a sanguinary conflict of the great powers, but a reasonable person looks slightly at the fact that it is just such apparently insignificant incidents as these that have led to great wars in the past. Besides, the recent move in the political chess-board, the Drieboom negotiations, Cronstadt festivities, commercial treaties negotiations, M. Degiers' travels and other such matters, have all tended to draw deeper the line separating France and Russia from the rest of Europe and further paving the way for the great struggle which must come, sooner or later. Consequently, with Europe in this state of embroilment, the smallest spark, the slightest sign of fire, is sufficient not only to cause alarm, but to constitute actual danger that the peace of Europe may be broken before all the great powers are prepared.

The above statements are corroborated by the widespread comments of European newspapers yesterday. These utterances give some idea of the actual importance of the apparently insignificant fact that a Journalist has been expelled from Bulgaria. The gravity of the incident is in the fact that a great power like France, practically allied for offensive and defensive purposes under certain secret conditions to Russia, the enemy of the Turk and the Bulgar, has thought this action important enough to cause her to assume a most serious attitude towards this little power. France, it may be concluded, has not taken the step referred to without consultation with Russia, hence the real danger in the Choudouin incident.

Choudouin, it will be remembered, was the representative at Sofia of the Agence Havas, a French news association, and he was expelled from Bulgaria, because the Government of that country had decided to be unfavourable to Prince Ferdinand. France, through her representative at Sofia, demanded that the Bulgarians should remove Choudouin, and the consequence was that the French Minister was obliged to sever diplomatic relations with the Bulgarian Government.

The rupture of diplomatic relations between France and Bulgaria is of no immediate importance to France, but the rupture will affect Bulgaria, and in turn power to Sofia. When a great power establishes diplomatic relations against Bulgaria, it is well not to go too far in a course, in which they appear to be embarking with alacrity.

COMMERCIAL TREATIES.

PROGRESS MADE AT VIENNA.—SOUTH AMERICAN STATES INTERESTED.—The committee of the Vienna conference, which the Zollverein treaties were referred to decide to conclude discussions of them before Christmas. The committee, however, has not yet decided to conclude discussions of them before Christmas. The committee, however, has not yet decided to conclude discussions of them before Christmas.

SOUTH AMERICA INTERESTED.—Buenos Aires, Dec. 16.—The Independence League has decided to negotiate with Germany, Austria, Hungary, Italy, England and Belgium for establishment of a free trade area. The league has decided to negotiate with Germany, Austria, Hungary, Italy, England and Belgium for establishment of a free trade area.

BEFORE THE REICHSTAG.—Berlin, Dec. 16.—When the commercial treaty came up in the Reichstag the most interesting part of the discussion was the tariff on grain, grain and other agricultural products. The tariff on grain was fixed at 10 marks per ton, and the tariff on other agricultural products was fixed at 5 marks per ton.

THE DOMINION.

CANAL TOLL REGULATIONS.—OTTAWA, Dec. 16.—The Government has officially informed King's College, Ontario, that no change will be made in the regulation respecting rebates on canal tolls for the present, or until the matter is discussed with the American authorities. This statement puts an end to all hope of securing a rebate on grain transported at Ogdensburg and forwarded to Montreal.

FRENCH NEWS.

TAX ON RAILWAY PASSENGERS ABOLISHED.—PARIS, Dec. 16.—The Chamber of Deputies has adopted the proposal made by the Government to abolish the 10 per cent tax levied by the government on the rates charged by railway companies. The latter have agreed to reduce the fares by the amount of the tax.

RETURNED TO FRANCE.

RETURNED TO FRANCE.—The French Board of Trade show that during the month of November the imports decreased 1,707,000 francs, and that the exports increased 4,205,000 francs as compared with the corresponding month last year.

THE PAPAL SEA.—FRANCE AND THE VATICAN ON MUCH BETTER TERMS.—Rome, Dec. 16.—It is believed here that Count Lefevre de Beaulieu, the French Ambassador to the Holy See, will shortly be recalled. He was never greatly liked by the Pope, and now is less in favor than ever. It is thought probable that his successor will be M. de Moult, late Ambassador to King Humbert, M. de Marcere was in St. Petersburg, M. de Marcere was in St. Petersburg, M. de Marcere was in St. Petersburg.

It is believed at the Vatican that Count Kalnoky's speech in reference to the papal question was made under instructions from the Emperor, in order to give some comfort to the Pope. In view of the mortification caused him by the pilgrim disorders in October. At the same time care was taken not to give the least offense to Italy. Cardinal Rampolla thinks the speech had a triple aim: to alienate France from the Pope, and vice versa, to alienate Italy from the Pope, and to alienate France from Italy.

The revolution in Brazil has greatly interested the Vatican. France has assured the Pope that she would preserve his religious liberty. The new government was no sooner constituted than it renewed these assurances, which have made the best impression at the Vatican. Notwithstanding the declarations of the Brazilian Government, which has just returned to Ireland from Rome, there are excellent reasons for believing that a new programme in regard to Irish affairs is being elaborated at Rome. The Vatican is watching the developments and the increasing influence of the Irish hierarchy.

FOR FREE COINAGE.

OUTLINES OF A BILL TO BE PASSED IN THE HOUSE.—WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 16.—A correspondent telegraphs to the New York World that it is pretty certain a bill for the free coinage of silver in some form will pass the Democratic House and the Republican Senate during the present session. The plan practically agreed upon by those who will control the matter in the House is briefly this: To stop all purchases of silver by the government, to throw open the mints to the free coinage of all silver hereafter to be produced from American mines, and to grant adequate compensation to foreign silver upon a system of notification and inspection, similar to that devised for the guarding of the sugar bounties.

CONGRESSIONAL.

NOMINATIONS BY THE PRESIDENT.—HOUSE COMMITTEES.—WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 16.—The President sent to the Senate to-day the following nominations: To be United States Circuit Judge, William I. Putnam of Maine, first judicial circuit; Second judicial circuit, George M. Dallas of Pennsylvania, Third judicial circuit, Nathan G. West of Virginia, Fourth judicial circuit, William H. Taft of Ohio, Fifth judicial circuit, Charles E. Smith of Indiana, Seventh judicial circuit, and Warren T. H. of Oregon to the District of Oregon.

THE SITUATION CRITICAL.

Crested Butte Operators and Miners Still Far Apart.—DENVER, Colo., Dec. 16.—The situation at Crested Butte is as far from settlement as ever. An attempt was made to-day by the Colorado Coal & Iron Co. to load empty cars with coke. If they do, however, work will be sure to follow. Seventy-five Winchesters and 2,500 rounds of ammunition were shipped to Crested Butte yesterday. A bill of 7,000 feet of lumber was sold to-day by a local lumber dealer and carpenter were hired on a boarding-house at the mouth of the mine. This would indicate a determination on the part of the miners to leave the men out. The situation is considered very critical.

SPRINGER MAY LEAD

Ways and Means Chairmanship Likely to Be Offered Him.

REASONS WHY THE SPEAKER SHOULD NOT SELECT MILLS.

Outlines of a Bill for Free Coinage.—Democratic Senate Committee Assignments.—Respectively With British West Indies.—Proceedings in Congress To-day.—Notes From the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 16.—The impression grows that Speaker of Illinois will be placed at the head of the Ways and Means Committee, and thus assume the leadership of the Democratic majority in the Lower House of the Forty-second Congress. There are several weighty reasons why Mr. Springer should not make Mills chairman of this important committee. One of these is the evident purpose of the Texas not to yield to the wish of the majority to select Mills, expressed in the election of Crisp, to refrain from an attempt to pass an entire new tariff bill. Another reason is the probability that Mills would be a sectional weight, and would be a sectional weight, and would be a sectional weight.

There is not the least doubt that if left to a vote of the Democrats of the House to-day, Springer would be elected Speaker. The House of Representatives is a sectional weight, and would be a sectional weight, and would be a sectional weight. The House of Representatives is a sectional weight, and would be a sectional weight, and would be a sectional weight.

Mrs. Mary Dawson swore out an assault and battery warrant in Justice Carroll's court against Mrs. L. Schultz for a beating which Mrs. Dawson received yesterday at the hands of Mrs. Schultz. Both are tenants of No. 20 Moore street and have a yard in common. Mrs. Dawson took exception to the pranks of Mrs. Schultz's children and complained to their mother. Mrs. Schultz took the part of the children, so Mrs. Dawson followed. Mrs. Dawson alleges that Mrs. Schultz set a poker and made at her with it. Mrs. Dawson threw up her arms to defend herself, she says, and received the blows on her arms. She at once hastened to the Justice's office for a warrant.

Josephine L. Wellington had an attachment issued against Laura Duto for an unpaid account of $100, and had a garnishment served upon Baggett & Haley, who the plaintiff alleged had money belonging to the defendant. Baggett & Haley made answer yesterday that they had received the money. The plaintiff denied this claim. The original attachment suit will be tried on its merits Jan. 6, 1892, and an order of publication to that effect has been issued. On the day following this trial affidavits will be taken relative to the garnishment case and the court will decide whether Baggett & Haley have the money or not.

Mary A. Murnighan, the wife of Barney Murnighan, who had a garnishment court yesterday against J. R. Whipple for $25 due her as rent of the premises, 3128 Easton avenue. Whipple is a liveyman who has not been seen in any of his accustomed haunts since last Friday, and against whom Cullen & Kelly took out an attachment in Justice Shaeffer's court yesterday afternoon.

The last suit of William F. Cozzen against Charles H. Smiley and Solomon L. Cohen for $150, which the plaintiff claims is due him for work done on the premises belonging to Cohen on Eighth and Chestnut streets, was set for trial in Justice Shaeffer's court this afternoon.

He did so and recovered a quantity of carriage trimmings, etc., which he carried to the Tower Grove Police station and deposited for safe keeping. The goods were found by Constable Reese secured in a trunk owned by E. J. Egan, who has been for some time employed by Haycock Bros. as night watchman. Egan is now under arrest.

The testimony developed that Lippe, who refused to give up the guarantee money. The testimony was quite confused and the judge gave a judgment for Lippe in this case.

Ritter brought a third suit for $27, which the judge gave him for work which he had done for Lippe after the latter had been acquitted of the charge. Ritter did not do a stitch of work for him after that day, and introduced evidence to that effect. The judge decided this suit also against Ritter.

to break down. He said, according to the evidence, that he had been in the habit of pocketing the difference between what he received from Lippe and what he paid to his father. He took about 5 cents out of every dozen articles, and the whole, according to the evidence, amounted to $11. Lippe disavowed him, but allowed him until the end of the month, he claims, on his earnest plea because he was about to be married. He worked until the end of the month and claimed he worked two days over. He entered suit against Lippe for salary amounting to $88. Lippe alleged that he paid young Lippe everything he owed him. The judge gave judgment for Lippe in this case.

The first suit of the elder Ritter against Lippe was for $20 which he claimed he had deposited with Ritter as a guarantee for some goods which Ritter had bought by sample from a New York house. Ritter alleged, according to the evidence, that the goods did not match the sample and he would not take them from Lippe, who refused to give up the guarantee money. The testimony was quite confused and the judge gave a judgment for Lippe in this case.

AMATEUR BOXERS.

The Middle-Weight Championship of America to Be Decided To-Night.

PAT CASHILL AND JIM BUTLER WILL SETTLE THE QUESTION OF SUPREMACY.

Distinguished Lights the Turt Has Lost—The Monmouth Park Management Contemplating the Abandonment of Their Magnificent Course—A Chance for Cigarette Smokers—Sporting News.

The contest between Pat Cashill and Jim Butler, the crack middleweights, is exciting no end of comment among the amateur cracks throughout the East, as it will practically decide the amateur middleweight championship.

Cashill is one of the cleverest amateur boxers of the generation. His fame as a cool and scientific boxer in the ring is known near and far. He is a hard hitter and is noted for the many knockouts he has scored during his brilliant career.

He was born on Feb. 20, 1864, in Trenton, N. J., and is of Irish extraction. He inherited his fighting qualities from his father, who was a noted boxer in his young days. Young Cashill won the American championship in 1888 and has held the title ever since, although Butler, the man he is to meet to-night, was given a decision over him last winter. Pat is an active member of the Young Men's Athletic Club, and represents the Scottish-American Athletic Club, Jersey City, in all his contests.

Jim Butler hails from Brooklyn and is a member of the Varuna Boat Club. He first came into prominence as a boxer two years ago, defeating P. J. Kelly of the West Side Athletic Club, New York, in one round. His next appearance was in a ten-round special with Mike McAuliffe, whom he defeated by a knockout in the third round. He then defeated J. Van Houten in four rounds. At the Varuna's show last year he met and defeated Pat Cashill in a four-round special. Butler met Mike Callan of the National Athletic Club and after several rounds the contest resulted in a draw. In justice to Butler it can be said that Callan had the advantage in weight some sixteen pounds.

Butler is a shifty fighter, depending largely on a right-arm half swing, which, if landed properly, is very dangerous. He is increasing in weight and feels confident he will gain a victory to-night. Butler is a pupil of the ex-champion light-weight, Frank White, and shows considerable of the latter's tricks in fighting. The tournament at which the men will meet takes place at the Clermont Avenue rink, Clermont avenue, Brooklyn.

Last night Cashill had a set-to with Alex Wilson, a colored amateur. He started to knock out the latter, but near the close of the second round the negro landed on his mouth with terrific force, and the fight was called off. Cashill's lip was split and swelled very large, so that he will enter the ring to-night hand-capped.

CARTHY AND MURPHY.
Cal McCarthy, the feather-weight, seems to be in great demand with all the sporting clubs, says the San Francisco Report. The California club has offered him $1,000 to meet Johnny Murphy, and the Olympic Club of New Orleans has raised this amount to $2,000. McCarthy has won six fights in six months—weight in six hours before the fight with the Olympic Club has already allowed him $2,000. McCarthy has already won six fights in six months—weight in six hours before the fight with the Olympic Club has already allowed him $2,000.

At a time Murphy was barred from the San Francisco Club, and the scarcity of material for contests has made him, like a number of other pugilists, once unpopular here, a necessary article.

THE SMOOTH MADDER.
Billy Madden says of himself: "Peter Maher will fight either Mitchell or Corbett, under London or Queensberry rules. So a match of some kind will surely be made. I have one more fight to make, and then I will retire. I am tired of the life of a pugilist. I have one more fight to make, and then I will retire. I am tired of the life of a pugilist."

THE BETTING ON THE WOODS-CRISCHOLSKI CONTEST.
The betting on the Woods-Crischolski contest is now in its height. The odds are 10 to 1 in favor of Charles Johnson, who represents Champion Sullivan in New York, is out in a state, in which he has been defeated by the champion. He has been defeated by the champion. He has been defeated by the champion.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE MONMOUTH PARK AUTHORITIES WERE NEGOTIATING FOR LAND IN THE VICINITY OF OAK POINT, ON WHICH TO BUILD A RACE TRACK, HAS CAUSED THE MONMOUTH PARK MANAGEMENT TO CONSIDER THE ABANDONMENT OF THEIR MAGNIFICENT COURSE. A CHANCE FOR CIGARETTE SMOKERS—SPORTING NEWS.

DRAMA OF THE SEA.

A Story of Love, Shipwreck and a Faithless Sweetheart.

WHY OUR APPLAUSE PREFERS THE LIFE OF A SAILOR.

After a Series of Hardships He Returns to Find His Affiance on Her Way to Church to Be Married to a Rival—He Forthwith Turns His Face Toward the Ocean.

New York, Dec. 16.—A brave sailor man, given up for lost on the high seas returned to his home after a long absence and much suffering to find the sweetheart he left behind him wedded to another. This was the fate of Augustus Applebee of Port Jefferson, mate of the ill-fated Tamos. He is a young man of athletic build, good looking, manly, and with a passionate fondness for the sea. He has progressed rapidly in his chosen calling, and is considered a valuable adjunct to Port Jefferson society when at home. Capt. Maule, who commanded the Tamos, a three-masted schooner, a short time ago because of his ability and trustworthiness. Last September the Tamos sailed out of New York harbor never to return. The crew consisted of six men in addition to the captain and mate. After touching at various ports she proceeded to Jacksonville, where she took on a cargo of yellow pine. On Monday, Oct. 8, with the sun shining and a brisk breeze blowing, she started back. Everything went well until the afternoon, when a "gale" was particularly happy in anticipation of an interesting event which he expected would occur upon his return.

Then two days out, however, a sudden change occurred. Early in the afternoon on Wednesday the sky became black, and the sails could be all properly reefed a hurricane was whistling through the rigging. At 6 o'clock the mate, who was on the foremast, saw a light in the distance. He called out a leak. The crew manned the pumps. A portion of the deck load of lumber had been swept away by the waves. In order to still further lighten the crew alternated between work at the pumps and throwing overboard. The mate, who was on the foremast, saw a light in the distance. He called out a leak. CIGARETTE SMOKING CONTEST.
A new field has been opened up to the devotees of the pipe and the cigarette. It is the cigarette smoking contest, a novelty in the sporting line. The first contest was held at the National Athletic Club, New York, on Dec. 10. The winner was a man named John Smith, who smoked a cigarette in 10 minutes.
